CALIFORNIA HEALTH INFORMATION PRIVACY MANUAL

Includes new laws on breaches, HIPAA and HITECH

This California-specific resource was written to help hospitals understand and comply with increasingly complex federal and state laws regulating the privacy of health information.

The manual addresses privacy requirements under the new federal Health Information Technology for Economic and Clinical Health (HITECH) Act, the Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act (HIPAA), the California Confidentiality of Medical Information Act, the California Patient Access to Health Records Act, the Lanterman-Petris-Short Act, and other state laws.

Chapters include:

- Understand the Laws
- Administrative Processes and Considerations
- Privacy Rights and Notice of Privacy Practices
- Use and Disclosure of Protected Health Information:
 - Fundamentals and Preemption Analysis
 - General Patient
 - Mental Health and Developmental Disabilities
 - Substance Abuse
- Privacy and the Conduct of Research
- Employee Health Information
- Health Information Security
- Business Associate Contracts
- Breaches
- Enforcement and Penalties
